Induction and training of directors

Newly elected members of Magnit's Board of Directors complete an induction programme, which includes:

- meetings with members of the Management Board and the Company's senior executives;
- introduction to the Company's history, strategy, corporate governance system, risk management and internal control system, the distribution of responsibilities among the Company's executive bodies, and the procedures of the Board of Directors;
- familiarisation with the Company's documents, including the latest annual reports, the minutes of annual and extraordinary General Meetings of Shareholders, the minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors, and other relevant information about the Company's activities.

Board of Directors

The Company's Board of Directors and its numerical composition is elected and determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders according to the Articles of Association of PJSC Magnit.

The members of the collective executive body (Management Board) may not account for more than one-fourth of the members of the Company's Board of Directors. The sole executive bodies (President and Chief Executive Officer) may not simultaneously act as the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors of PJSC Magnit steers the Company's operations, defines strategic goals and implements effective management practices, while also electing the Management Board, CEO and President. The main objective of the Board of Directors is to increase the value of the business. When making decisions, the Board of Directors takes into account the interests of all shareholders and other stakeholders.

The work of the Board of Directors goes beyond formal meetings. The Board regularly interacts with the management team to streamline cooperation between the executive bodies of the Company and the Board of Directors.

The make-up of the Board is governed by Federal Law No. 208-FZ On Joint-Stock Companies dated 26 December 1995 and also by the Articles of Association, Regulations on General Shareholders Meeting, Regulations on the Board of Directors, and Regulations on the Committees of the Board of Directors.

Committees of the Board of Directors

In accordance with PJSC Magnit's internal regulations, there are four committees under the Board of Directors:

- Audit Committee;
- HR and Remuneration Committee;
- Strategy Committee;
- Capital Markets Committee.

The committees are made up from members of the Board of Directors who are elected based on their relevant professional experience and knowledge. When electing members of the committees (including the chairs of the committees), the following aspects must be taken into consideration: the education and professional training of the candidates, their work experience in the Committee's focus area, their document handling skills, as well as other necessary proficiencies and experience.

The Regulations on the Committees of the Board of Directors of PJSC Magnit govern the make-up and activities of the committees.

The work of the committees goes beyond formal meetings. The committees constantly interact with the management team in order to streamline cooperation between the executive bodies of the Company and the Board of Directors.
